

SINGING NEW SONGS WITH CONFIDENCE

A practical session for Clergy, Children's Work Leaders and anyone involved in leading songs in worship at School Assemblies, Youth Groups, Messy Church or All Age Worship in church services

Learn some great new songs!

Understand the basic musical elements of contemporary worship songs - melody, harmony & rhythm.

Discover some useful resources and sources of new material.

Move towards truly participatory sung worship with simple techniques to involve everyone.

Explore the ways in which new technologies can make music accessible and inclusive.

Saturday 8th October

9.30am - 1.00pm

St Michael's Church Tollerton.

The cost is being met by Diocese of York - Candy

Refreshments provided.

Booking required.

Bring your own iPad or tablet if you have one.

(Not essential)

Andrew Cleaton is an accomplished composer, producer and educator with a great deal of experience in leading All Age Worship. As founding co-director of Epiphany Music he travels widely, delivering creative, fun, accessible and inclusive music making opportunities for children with Special Educational Needs and disabilities. A published author and gifted communicator, his training sessions for teachers and children alike are always in demand. This is going to be a workshop NOT to be missed!

For more information and to make your booking, please email nigel.chapman@yorkdiocese.org call or text 07877 793179 the following information.

YOUR NAME

YOUR CHURCH / CHILDREN'S GROUP ETC

YOUR CONTACT DETAILS.

Your place will be confirmed by return.

Directions: St Michael's Church, Newton Rd, Tollerton. YO61 1QX

Some feedback responses:

"I've learnt so much during this course which has increased my confidence and also realised that, for some of it, I knew more than I realised!"

"Andrew's presentation and delivery done with passion and knowledge helps make an excellent course."

"To include such a variety of abilities so well and inspire makes this a sure success for anyone."

This is a Diocese of York
Children's and Youth Work training event.

