

The Reconciliation Debate

What's at stake?

Mercy

Justice

Truth

Peace

St Martin Coney Street, York

Wednesday 3rd May

7:30pm

You're invited to join international members of the Reconciliation Ministry Team from Coventry Cathedral in an evening talk and workshop at St Martin Coney Street, York. The talk will explore foundations in reconciliation theory as well as the gospel imperative that is central to the work at Coventry Cathedral and the global network of The Community of the Cross of Nails. The workshop following the talk will engage participants in conversation about crucial components on the reconciliation journey and offer practical tools for becoming people who live reconciliation boldly in the world.

For more information on the evening or to RSVP, please email jane@stmartinsyork.org.uk

St Martin Coney
Street

Dedicated to Peace and Reconciliation

