Our Value for the Half Term
Home › Church › Our Value for the Half Term
Our Value for the second half of the summer term is COMPASSION.
The meaning of compassion is to recognise the suffering of others, then take action to help. The meaning of compassion can be expressed in many ways.
Author Frederick Buechner describes the meaning of compassion in these words: "Compassion is sometimes the fatal capacity for feeling what it is like to live inside somebody else's skin. It is the knowledge that there can never really be any peace and joy for me until there is peace and joy finally for you too."
U2 lead singer Bono explains that the meaning of compassion for Christians is to focus on those in need. "To me, a faith in Jesus Christ that is not aligned with the poor ... it's nothing."
The Bible defines the meaning of compassion in several ways. We are to "speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves ... defend the rights of the poor and needy" (Proverbs 31:8-9, NIV). We do this by taking action instead of just talking about helping others: "Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth" (1 John 3:18, NIV).

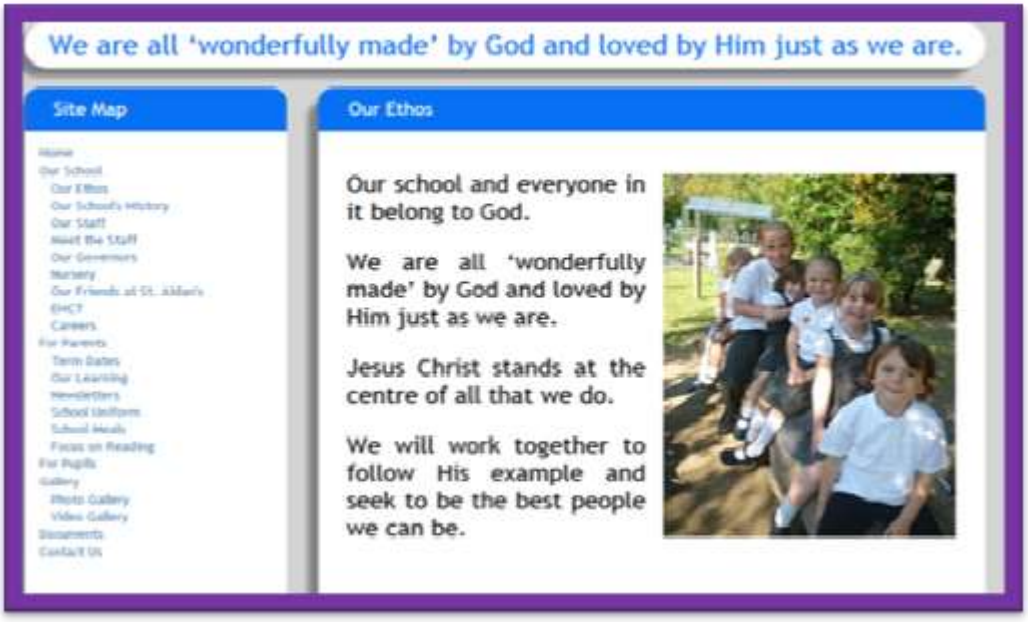
Christian Values
At Snainton we believe that it is important to develop core values by which to live and cultivate moral standards that support and form character, spiritual awareness and self-esteem. We feel a deep responsibility to nurture core values that can be shared and expressed by all regardless of faith or belief. As a school and community we seek to explore the meanings of core values and their significance in Christianity, other religions and secular teachings.
As a whole school community we have advocated distinctive values that we believe give our school a core purpose. The gifts of friendship, thankfulness, respect, community, creation, endurance, compassion, forgiveness, peace, wisdom, service, trust, humility, justice and hope are the values we want our children to leave with. While these gifts are inclusive of human values we try to anchor them into the Christian faith by relating them to the bible through stories and readings.



We are all 'wonderfully made' by God and loved by Him just as we are.

Our Ethos
Our school and everyone in it belong to God.
We are all 'wonderfully made' by God and loved by Him just as we are.
Jesus Christ stands at the centre of all that we do.
We will work together to follow His example and seek to be the best people we can be.
