The Story:

Long ago in a country far away from this one, there were shepherds...

watching over their sheep...

by night.

Being good shepherds...

they protected their sheep, made sure they had food to eat and water to drink, and gathered them together at night...

for protection. The shepherds...

were listening to the soft sounds of the sheep...

as they quieted down to go to sleep. The dark sky was full of shimmering stars that night.

And then..all sound stopped and an angel...

appeared to them. They were bathed in light, almost as if they glowed from within. The shepherds...

were frightened and so were the sheep.

The angel...

spoke to them. “Don’t be afraid. I have some good news...

to share. My good news...

will bring great joy...

to all people. The good news...

is this: this very day in David’s town, a baby...

was born. And this baby...

is your savior—Christ the Lord.” The shepherds...

were amazed and so were the sheep.

What they thought was going to be like every other evening had turned into a holy night.

The angel...

told them to go into Bethlehem where they would find the baby.

Then the sky was filled with angels...

singing praises to God, proclaiming the good news...

with great joy...

then they were gone. The shepherds...

looked at each other and at the sheep.

“We should go to Bethlehem and see the baby...,”

they said. So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph and the baby...

lying in a manger. When the shepherds...

saw him, they told Mary and Joseph what the angel...

had told them about the baby.

And that they had come to see the good news...

for themselves so that they could share the great joy.

Everyone who heard what the shepherds...

said was amazed. Mary listened to all that was said and treasured it in her heart. The shepherds...

went back into the hills to their sheep...

singing praises to God for all they had heard and seen. It had been just as the angel...

had told them. They had knelt before the baby...

and when they were finally settled down, turned to each other and proclaimed, "What a night!"
