	 A title card for the story 'Blind Man at Bethsaida' (Mark 8:22-25). It features a cartoon illustration of a man with curly brown hair and a yellow and red striped headband. To his right, three trees with human-like legs are walking. The text 'BLIND MAN AT BETHSAIDA' and 'Mark 8:22-25' is centered below the illustration. The website 'www.freebibleimages.org' is at the bottom.
1 Jesus and His disciples arrived in a village called Bethsaida.	 A cartoon illustration of Jesus with a black beard and a blue robe, looking towards a group of people in a village. A woman in a purple robe is holding a baby, and another woman is carrying a large bundle on her back. A child is sitting on the ground in the foreground.
2 The people in Bethsaida brought a blind man to Jesus and begged Him to heal him.	 A close-up cartoon illustration of Jesus with a black beard and a blue robe. He is looking at a man with a yellow and red striped headband and a brown robe. A woman in a green headscarf is also visible between them.
3 Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. Jesus put spit on the man's eyes and then put His hands on him.	 A cartoon illustration of Jesus with a black beard and a blue robe, holding the hand of the blind man who is wearing a yellow and red striped headband and a brown robe. They are walking towards a small village in the background.

- 4 Jesus asked, 'Do you see anything?'
The man looked up and said, 'I see people. They look like trees walking around.'

- 5 Once more Jesus put His hands on the man's eyes.

- 6 The man looked again and he could see people - looking like people - not trees. He could see everything clearly and it was amazing.

- 7 'Go to your home,' said Jesus. The man made his way home seeing clearly for the first time. Jesus had healed him.
